

KINNEY IS VICTIM OF THE STATE

Pays Penalty in Electric Chair for Murder of Capt. Ralph Byrns

SWEETHEART VISITS HIM

Before He Dies and Touch- ing Farewell Scene Oc- curs—Gov. Cox Would Not Interfere With the Electrocution.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 12.—Unclaimed by any relative, the body of Frank Kinney, electrocuted this morning shortly after midnight for the murder of Captain Ralph Byrns, in Cleveland, lay in a local undertaking establishment today. Upon directions from Miss Nellie Sullivan, sweetheart of the dead murderer, the body will be buried in Mount Calvary cemetery. The expense of the burial has been provided through a small fund contributed by prisoners in the penitentiary. These contributions, ranging from several dollars collected in "banker's row," to pennies given by less prosperous inmates of the big walled institutions that shuts in the state's criminals.

Price Russell, executive clerk to Governor Cox, today told of a cipher code arranged by the governor before he went to New York Wednesday to be used in case of a contingency calling for a reprieve for Kinney. This was to guard against false telegrams which might have been sent supposedly from Governor Cox.

A reprieve in blank had been left by the governor to be filled in by Mr. Russell had he received the cipher telegram.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., Dec. 12.—Frank Kinney has paid to the state the penalty it exacted for the murder last February of Ralph E. Byrns, a retired lake captain of Cleveland.

He was electrocuted just after last midnight and was pronounced dead by prison physicians, without having disclosed any details of his career.

Kinney was stoic and entered the death chamber unaided, accompanied by Rev. Father Kelly, the prison chaplain. He voluntarily seated himself in the electric chair and, in response to the query of the warden, declared: "Gentlemen, I have nothing to say." At 12:12 a. m. he was officially declared dead.

Although Kinney was privileged to have three friends in the death chamber with him, he made no suggestion to prison officials that he wished to exercise the privilege.

The initial charge of electricity carried 1950 volts. It was reduced to 250 volts and then increased to 1950, Drs. O. M. Kramer and A. J. Shoemaker were in attendance. The current turned on from behind a screen by unknown hands, was allowed to course through Kinney's body.

Kinney's electrocution was the first since Governor Cox became the state's chief executive. Postal Telegraph company employees were alert until midnight in expectation of a possible message from the governor in New York ordering the electrocution delayed. It is understood that the governor visited the Postal office in New York during last evening and intimated that he might have an important message later.

It was the first execution superintended by Warden Thomas and Kinney was the first murderer to occupy the new chamber for condemned men.

Rev. Father Kelly, Catholic prison chaplain, took charge of Kinney's body after the prison physicians pronounced him dead.

Although Kinney had been refused a recommendation for commutation by the state pardon board two weeks ago, he persistently entertained hope of receiving either a commutation or reprieve from Governor Cox. He displayed no emotion or deep concern until yesterday afternoon, when Miss Nellie Sullivan of Cincinnati, his sweetheart, went to the penitentiary for a last visit with him.

Miss Sullivan was largely responsible for Kinney's arrest in Chicago, where they went after the murder of Captain Byrns in Cleveland.

PENILESS GIRL TRIES SUICIDE; MAY RECOVER

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., Dec. 12.—Practically penniless, without work and despondent, Miss Ruth Arnold, 20, who came to Columbus two weeks ago from Cincinnati, made two unsuccessful attempts at suicide yesterday and is now in the Protestant hospital.

The girl first drank carbolic acid and then is thought to have thrown herself across the street car tracks on Neil avenue, near Goodale street. She was found unconscious on the tracks by the motorman of the 3 o'clock Neil avenue owl car, the empty fly clutched in one hand.

Passengers on the car called a taxicab and had the girl removed to Protestant hospital. Her mouth and face had been badly burned by the carbolic acid, but she had not taken enough to cause death. At the hospital Miss Arnold has refused to talk.

PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT THE DINNER

Governor Cox Addresses Railway Business Asso- ciation in New York

BOLD STAND IS TAKEN

By Ohioan Who Advocates Federal Supervision of Security Issues—Warmly Cheered by His Auditors.

(Special to the Advocate)
New York, Dec. 12.—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, was the principal speaker at the fifth annual dinner of the Railway Business Association last night at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

Governor Cox came out squarely for vesting in the federal interstate commerce commission, rather than in the state commissions, the authority to pass on railroad security issues. The Ohio governor also favored vesting in the interstate commerce commission the regulation of railroad rates, to be modified as often as changing business conditions demand. "Public, but not government, ownership of railways," said Governor Cox, would result from the issuance of railroad stock in small denominations, which he strongly urged.

The governor's audience including many leading railroad officials and other men of great prominence in the business world, was both startled and enthused by the boldness of his words. He was warmly cheered when he declared that pre-plans he advocated meant ultimate salvation for the railroad business, as well as protection for the investor, and at many other points in his vigorous address.

Governor Cox characterized as obsolete the policy of maintaining states' rights in regulation of interstate railway systems. He criticized those who blame governmental regulation for all the recent ills of the railway business.

Governor Cox said railways abused their power in the past, when there was little government regulation, but urged that "past sins be forgotten" and that the new order be built on an entirely new basis. He suggested the Ohio public utilities law by which the state commission passes on all issues of railway securities, compels reports of the expenditure of funds raised by the sale of securities and regulates rates within the state, as a general model for a national law which would give the interstate com-

LIFE INSURANCE PRESIDENTS HEAR HEALTH TEACHER

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 12.—The increase in longevity, brought about by the modern public health movement has saved many an insurance company from ruin, said Dr. Wm. T. Sedgwick of Boston in an address today at the Association of Life Insurance Presidents. Dr. Sedgwick is professor of public health in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The speaker asserted, however, that in the health movement there was likely to be for some years to come "a lot of motion."

The emphasis he said, is put in the wrong place. "Pure food, for example, is a worthy subject of consideration but pure water and pure milk are infinitely more important to any community than pure spices, pure jellies and pure baking powder. The seizure of tainted turkeys Thanksgiving time is doubtless desirable and commendable, but it is far less important than the scientific inspection and regulation of lodging houses and the establishment of public baths."

There have been many reports of white slavery in connection with the McCann case, but a few of those detectives working on it think the girl has been stolen. The members of her family have acted in a manner which has not been convincing to most of those who have seen them.

Number of Awards are Granted by the State Industrial Commission

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 12.—At least one widow, said to be absolutely destitute and in poor health, will rejoice over the action of the state industrial commission today in granting an award of $2,808 from the state industrial insurance fund for the death of her husband. She is Mrs. Mat Raznerowicz, 1521 Tecumseh street, Toledo, whose husband died of tetanus as the result of having been struck by a heavy iron bar while employed at the plant of the National Supply company. The widow will receive $9 a week for a period of six years.

This is the forty-third death award granted since the state liability insurance law went into effect in March, 1912.

TELLER TESTIFIES THAT 26 CENTURY NOTES WERE MISSING

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 12.—Carl Shaw, and Roy Cameron, former tellers of the defunct Columbus Savings and Trust company, were the witnesses introduced by the prosecution today in the trial of Clem S. Baxter. These are the two men from whose cash on the night of the failure of the Columbus Savings and Trust company Clem Baxter, then a state bank examiner, is alleged to have taken $3140.

Shaw testified that he counted his cash before he left on the afternoon of the day of the failure and noted the denominations of different money upon his "cage book." He stated that when he arrived at the bank the morning after the failure he learned that $2600 in $100 bills was missing from his cash. He described the methods of stacking the money and under cross-examination went into details as how the money had been handled the afternoon of the failure.

FAVORS LUNCH ROOMS FOR ALL HIGH SCHOOLS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 12.—I hope lunch-rooms maintained in Cleveland schools will not be ousted by the courts," said Frank W. Miller, state superintendent of instruction, here today. He referred to a suit brought by proprietors of a lunch room near West Technical High school to enjoin school authorities from allowing lunches to be sold in the school, on the ground that a profit is being made on them.

The state department of instruction favors the installation of lunch rooms in all high school buildings of the state, and particularly in schools where a short time only, is allowed for lunch. Otherwise children buy unwholesome lunches and feel the effects after the lunch hour when they are expected to be bright-minded for their recitations or study. One of the endeavors of this department is to induce school principals to install lunch rooms. These who receive concessions are entitled to a profit on what they sell equivalent to a wage for their work in maintaining the stand, said Mr. Miller.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION OF A BOMB

Confidential Bookkeeper, Girl of 18, Meets Death in Employer's Office

WAS SENT BY EXPRESS

And Half Hundred Detec- tives are Now Working on Case—Bomb Apparently Contained Quantity of Dynamite.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 12.—Ida Anusewitz, a girl of eighteen employed as confidential bookkeeper of the O. K. Bottling company, at 528 West 35th street, was killed today by a bomb sent to her employers. Thomas McCabe, managing salesman, was cut in the head by flying metal and Michael Ryan, an employe standing outside the office was injured by shattered glass. The desk on which the bomb was placed as Miss Anusewitz opened it was demolished and the office was wrecked.

The bomb was delivered by express. Apparently it contained dynamite, as the force of the explosion was downward.

Who sent the bomb and why were questions that sent half a hundred or more detectives at work on every possible clue. On the return address—23 State street, N. Y. City. The building at this address is a large office building occupied largely by exporting firms who employ a number of foreigners.

The bureau of combustibles, working on the mystery with the few bits of metal found in the floor and walls, announced that the missile was of similar construction to the bomb sent to Judge Rosalsky about two years ago.

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 12.—A bomb, sent by express exploded and instantly killed a young woman employe in an uptown bottling works today and injured two men employes. The girl's head was torn off. In the confusion there was delay in identifying the girl. The package was addressed to Thomas McCabe, one of the office force. He was standing near the girl when she opened it. His left ear was torn off, and Michael Ryan, another employe, was cut by flying glass.

Later the police learned that the girl was Ida Anusewitz. She was eighteen years old and had been employed by the company only a short time.

The package containing the bomb was addressed to the bottling company in stencil. It was received by McCabe who placed it on the girl's desk.

The force of the explosion wrecked the room, shattering plate glass windows and tearing a jagged hole in the floor. Inasmuch as the force seemed to be downward, the police believed dynamite had been used.

Employes of the company connected the explosion with the alleged discharge recently of 30 workmen by William H. Callahan, the proprietor. Callahan, however, denied having discharged the workmen and told the police that they were working today.

"To my best knowledge I have no enemies," Callahan said. "The affair is a mystery to me."

Within an hour several squads of detectives were working on the case. The remnants of the package were sent to the bureau of combustibles for investigation. Upon the corner of the package was stencilled the return address, ostensibly of the sender. It was 21 State street, New York.

FINAL SESSION COAL MINING COMMISSION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 12.—The final session of the coal mining commission, appointed to investigate the merits of the proposed coal screen law and other features of coal mining, began here today. Members said they would try to thresh out points of disagreement among members at this session and report their recommendations to Governor Cox. One member today declared it is possible a minority report will be submitted.

It is said all members of the commission agreed that a chance should be made in the method of mining coal and paying miners for their product. They are not unanimous, however, on the question of whether miners should be paid according to the "run of mine" plan, or for material mined before impurities are screened out of the product. The pay system should also tend to discourage the mining of too much fine coal, they agree.

Robbers Cut Hole in Jeweler's Window; Escape With Loot

Rome, N. Y., Dec. 12.—Robbers this morning quietly cut a hole ten inches wide in the plate glass window of Solomon's jewelry store and escaped with two trays of rings and an assortment of other jewelry. First Things

The first extended dictionary of the English language was published in 1755, and represented the monumental labor of Samuel Johnson, who died 129 years ago today, December 12, 1784. His dictionary, which occupied many years of his life, was perhaps the most remarkable work of its kind ever produced by a single person. Noah Webster's American dictionary was first published in 1828, and Worcester's English dictionary appeared in 1860. The first dictionary compiler was Pa-ou-tshe, a Chinese scholar, who lived about 1100 B. C., and who perfected a standard dictionary of the Chinese language containing about 40,000 characters, most of them hieroglyphics. About a century B. C., Varro compiled a Latin dictionary. Julius Pollux completed a collection of Greek vocabularies about 170 A. D. A polyglot dictionary in eight languages was compiled about 1500 by Calepini, a Venetian scholar. Vaugelas edited the first French dictionary, published by the French Academy in 1694. A Spanish dictionary was published in 1726, an Italian in 1729, and a Russian dictionary in 1759.

The Meacham family had never seen Wilson before.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1887.—Mike Weir and Tommy Warren fought 20-round draw at Minneapolis. This was the 24th fight of Warren's career. He was the 24th champion of the world and was held at John Barnes's club in the Flour City. The Belfast Spider had all the best of the mill, and the draw decision was very unpopular. It was rumored that Warren was given a 10-ounce glove and Weir a 12-ounce glove, but even if this was true it did not do Tommy any good. The Fox belt, emblematic of the world's feather title, was given to the Spider after this bout. Warren began to go back after this fight, but the following year he was still good enough to whip Jack Havlin in a sensational bout in San Francisco, during which Havlin was knocked down over forty times, although not knocked out.

1888.—Mike Madden and Jack Gray fought 10 rounds, 7 hours and 10 minutes, at Woking, England.

1907.—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Joe Thomas in 2nd round at San Francisco.

PHI GAMMA'S ENTERTAIN AT CHAPTER HOUSE

The guests from Newark were Messrs. and Mesdames Clark B. Hatch, Howard Jones, Fred Moore, Harry Baker, Roderic Jones, Charles Montgomery and H. L. Maddocks.

The impersonation of Abraham Lincoln by Benjamin Chapin last evening was well attended and enjoyed. The entertainment was offered under the management of the college and was the second number on the college course.

PRINCIPAL

(Continued from page one.) more commission authority over roads in all parts of the country, such as the Ohio commission has within the state.

The governor declared that public prejudice against railroads had developed in recent years because of "repulsive administrative policies of some companies," vigorously arraigning the recent management of the New Haven. He said:

Something must be done with the railroad question. If you lay your finger on the pulse of the railroad organism you have unmistakable symptoms of the country's prosperity or adversity. When Ohio was stricken last spring with great flood catastrophe we lay stunned and helpless until railroad communication was established. None will deny how important it is to conserve this utility and by this is meant protection from unwieldy legislation and a guarantee of measurable safety to the individuals and institutions that have hazarded their capital.

Now, what is the condition of the railroads? Tonnage continues stupendous. Terminals in every city are insufficient. There is congestion. Service is beginning to show the lack of old time regularity. Rolling stock is inadequate. The development of the country makes a call on the railroads for extensions and equipment which finds an enforced feeble response. They could advantageously to the public use hundreds of millions of dollars right now.

Impaired Railway Credit.

The railroads cannot borrow the money to provide for the situation. Short time notes have been given to meet current and emergency expenses, and if the banks were to demand payment we would be in the throes of a well organized panic. Investors have been driven to other fields, notwithstanding no business is based on a more stable utility than the railroads. The amount of securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange by steam railroads in 1912 was the smallest in 19 years.

You hear in many quarters the statement that adverse legislation and the policy of regulation are the largest contributing factors. I do not subscribe to this view. Sanitation will become the ultimate salvation of the business. One cannot resist the thought, when he surveys the abuses of over-capitalization, financial adventure and personal speculation, that the mistake in regulation has been that it did not come soon enough. No one will look to condemn the practice of putting railroads in order that executive officers and directors might be illegally and immorally given vast fortunes through the artful and insidious method of contracting with themselves for construction work. No man in conscience will avow the propriety of a wild cat policy in the issuance of securities. No community in America will produce the man who will attempt to justify the practices which have shaken the confidence of the conservative thought of New England.

Restore the Patient First.

We might just as well recognize, however, that a puritanical severity is not going to do any good. The thing to do is to restore the patient and then prescribe and enforce a diet and behavior which will prevent recurrent illness. Each age brings its changes in accepted fundamentals of justice. Our fathers subscribed to many things in full conscience that are shocking to present day ideals. We must therefore be consistent and recognize this as fundamentally just—that the transgression of yesterday cannot and must not be measured with the ethical yardstick of today. It is more creditable to adhere to this doctrine than to frame a policy of confiscating the holdings of present owners who are in no way to blame for the abuse of those who sold them.

You cannot buy land for terminals; lay tracks of steel to accommodate the growing traffic of the nation. build spurs to mines, cities or agricultural centers, without an increased cost in investment. You can't sell the securities unless the public is assured of a return on the investment. Every phase of the fiscal situation of the railroads suggests that something be done not only to establish in the minds of the investing public some fixed idea of the inherent value of the railroads, but to frame a national policy, securely supported by an intelligent public opinion, for the conservation of transportation utility. I introduce the suggestion that ultimate relief will never come until the Interstate Commerce Commission passes upon the issuance of securities. I spent a few days in Washington last week and heard everywhere the statement that the railroads would be given at once, without a word, the desired raise in rates if the government were assured that the increased revenue would be properly applied. Ask the government to step in as a representative stake of the public, the railroads and the investor, issue securities of smaller denominations and in ten years the great transportation lines will in fact belong to the people and you will have public ownership rather than government ownership.

Living Rates Necessary. Government, from the standpoint of morals and expediency, must permit the roving living rates. If it develops that while the gross receipts are considerably diminished by the liberal policy of society, then relief ought to be granted, whether it be one per cent, five per cent, or ten per cent, that is needed. There is nothing more harmful than the tendency to hold a fetish. There is no more offensive species of stand-pat than to impose a rate one year and continue it without term.

Let us all dedicate ourselves to the solution of this great problem of transportation—recognizing that it concerns every community and every household. In the forum of public opinion every issue has been settled and ultimately settled right in this our glorious country. If progress means anything it is that prejudice cannot last and that fair dealing will endure.

All Clogged Up? Here's Quick Relief

A Simple Remedy to Correct Constipation Before It Becomes Chronic.

Very few people go through life without some time or other being troubled with constipation. Thousands injure themselves by the use of strong cathartics, salts, mineral waters, pills and similar things. They have temporary relief in some cases, but the good effect is soon lost, and the more one takes of them the less effective they become.

A physic or purgative is seldom necessary, and much better and more permanent results can be obtained by using a scientific remedy. Like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It does not hide behind a high sounding name, but is what it is represented to be, a mild laxative medicine. It is so mild that thousands of mothers give it to their infants, and yet it is so compounded, and contains such definite ingredients that it will have equally good effect when used by a person suffering from the worst chronic constipation. In fact, among the greatest endorsers of Syrup Pepsin are elderly people who have suffered for years and found nothing to benefit them until they took Syrup Pepsin.

It is a fact that millions of families have Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin constantly in the house, homes like those of Mr. H. W. Fenstermaker, Steinfeld, Pa. He says he has had wonderful results from the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, that, in fact, he has never found a remedy so good.

MR. H. W. FENSTERMAKER.

and he is glad to recommend it. The special value of this grand laxative tonic is that it is suited to the needs of every member of the family. It is pleasant-tasting, mild and non-gripping. Unlike harsh physics, it works gradually and in a very brief time the stomach and bowel muscles are trained to do their work naturally again, when all medicines can be dispensed with.

You can obtain a bottle at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar. The latter size is usually bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington street, Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

MR. VAIL DIES SUDDENLY OF PARALYSIS

Ira S. Vail, age 73 years, father of George C. Vail, local agent of the National Cash Register company, with offices in the Arcade, died suddenly Thursday evening at his home in Sparta Morrow county, following a stroke of paralysis with which he was seized Thursday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. This was Mr. Vail's third stroke and his death followed four hours later at his home.

The attack came upon the unfortunate man while he was in his yard in the rear of his home. His unconscious form was found by relatives, who carried him into the house and summoned a physician. His condition was critical from the first and nothing could be done to restore him and he died without regaining consciousness. His entire right side was paralyzed.

His son here was notified shortly after Mr. Vail was found and he went at once to the home. The deceased is survived by his wife and three sons, George C. of Newark, A. A. Vail of Cardington, Morrow county, and J. D. Vail of Sparta.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 1 o'clock. Burial will be made in Bloomfield.

WEIRICK MAY BE SUPERINTENDENT OF PEST HOUSE

Henry Weirick former humane officer, is said to be the one best bet for the position of pesthouse superintendent under Mayor R. C. Bigbee. The talk is going the rounds that Weirick is claiming that he has the choice of two positions, one in the health department and the other as superintendent of the pesthouse. The latter position is under the safety department and besides having charge of the isolation hospital located in South Second street, the superintendent has other duties to perform under the direction of the public safety department. William Sasser has held this position for several years and has been a highly efficient officer. The duties relating to the care of smallpox patients have been very light during the past few years, the city being unusually free from this disease.

IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

BY BARBARA BOYD

If She Likes Things for the Home
Why not give the woman who likes things for the home a dainty stenciled set for her bedroom? It could consist of dresser cover, bedspread, curtains, pillow shams.—If these are used,—and cushion cover; or of any of these pieces. Linen crash, scrim, cheese cloth, and even unbleached muslin artistically stenciled, are pretty for any of these purposes. Unbleached muslin makes wonderfully attractive curtains. Simply finished with a dainty ball edge, they are charming; but they are still lovelier if stenciled.

On this order is a set composed of sheet and pillow cases of linen, hand embroidered. These would delight the woman who loves pretty things for her home. Even a pair of plain linen sheets would be welcomed by most housekeepers.

Daintily embroidered guest towels also make an attractive gift. Many women who have no knack for making pretty things for the home nevertheless love to have them. And they welcome eagerly the Christmas packet which brings them what they so much wish to own.

A beautiful centerpiece is sure to delight the lucky recipient. Lunch-rooms are such a favorite form of entertainment that a popular hostess needs a number of them; and such a gift to the woman who likes pretty things for her home will never go amiss.

Orange spoons or grapefruit spoons, a sandwich plate, or cracker and cheese dishes are always acceptable gifts to the home-lover.

Any of the little dainty aids for serving refreshments would be welcomed by most housekeepers; for though they may have all they need for the regular family table service, they do not always have the little dainty et ceteras they delight in for entertaining.

A fireless cooker would be one of the greatest labor savers that could be given a housekeeper if she has a gas range. It is not very economical, if one has to heat the stones on a coal range; but if a gas range is handy it is surely a useful addition to the kitchen furnishings.

If electricity is in the home an electric toaster or an electric iron would be welcome.

Among gifts that save work and money for the housekeeper may be classed steam-cookers. And greatest of all such gifts is a vacuum cleaner. The housekeeper with much sweeping to do would probably look upon such a gift as coming straight from heaven.

Barbara Boyd.

CREST OF TEXAS FLOOD PASSING INTO THE GULF

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Houston, Texas, Dec. 12.—One hundred and sixty-five persons perished, 20,000 people were driven from homes, and property was damaged to the extent of $50,000,000 by floods that have torn through several sections of Texas during the last ten days. This was the estimate compiled from reports received from the afflicted territory today.

The crest of the flood is slowly passing through the Brazos river delta into the gulf.

ENGLAND WILL RECRUIT ARMY BY ADVERTISING

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Dec. 12.—A newspaper advertising campaign for recruits to the British army is to be undertaken in all parts of the country. The war office has become convinced of the value of the newspapers as a medium, and has placed a contract with the head of a regular advertising agency to conduct the campaign during the next year on a large scale.

No less than 40,000 men are needed to fill vacancies in British regiments. The advertisement will point out that the young men who enlist will be fed, clothed, housed, get $2.50 a week pocket money and have free medical attention, as well as receiving a pension at the age of 30 years if the recruit is not over 18 at the time of his enlistment.

Daily motor car service has begun between Huelva and Agramonte, Spain.

Bronchitis Sufferer.

Take Druggists' Advice With Splendid Results.

If any one should know the worth of a medicine, it is the retail druggist who sells it every day in the week and is in a position to know what remedy gives the best satisfaction.

Mrs. Frank H. Uline of West Sand Lake, N. Y., says: "For years I was a great sufferer from bronchitis. Last July I had a severe attack and my friends thought I could not recover from it. Then I was advised by my druggist to try Vinol, which I did with wonderful results. My cough has left me; I have gained in weight and appetite and I am as strong as ever. I advise all who have bronchitis, chronic coughs, or who are run-down to try Vinol."

It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of the cod's liver, without oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-giving properties of tonic iron that makes Vinol so efficient in such cases.

Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say—we pay back your money if it does not. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

A HAITIAN HAY WAGON.

Throughout the West Indies the principal mode of burden is a very active, undersized donkey. Merchandise of all kinds is usually transported in very small lots suited to the size and the strength of this best of burden. The loads are often so large, however, that the donkey is almost all in from view, on top of over the largest of these loads is usually perched the driver, skillfully balancing himself or herself against the rolling gait of the steed. A photograph showing a load of hay being hauled toward the market in Haiti is reproduced herewith. The picture, which was snapped by a passenger on one of the West Indian cruises of the steamship Yara, a laise of the Hamburg-American Line, is very characteristic of the scene in the tropics in a very busy day. A native will spend the greater part of a day in carrying a few handfuls of hay to the market when sold will bring only a few pennies.

CHEESE KNIFE IN BURGLAR'S HANDS; FELLOW ESCAPED

A cheese knife in the hands of a youthful colored intruder was a successful weapon with which he stalled off three would-be captors who came upon the negro in the back store in Columbia Center, near Pataskala, Wednesday night.

Charles Trimmer heard a crash of glass as he drove through the village, and on investigation, after calling two men to his aid, found the negro crouching behind a counter in the store. The three approached the intruder but when he brandished the cheese knife the trio, alarmed, declined to detain him.

NATIONAL FORESTS FURNISH FORAGE FOR MANY CATTLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Dec. 12.—Here for the future meat supply of the country is held out in the annual report of Henry S. Graves, chief of the United States forestry service made public today. Mr. Graves declares that the national forests under his supervision furnish abundant forage supplies, opportunity for the adoption of the best methods and freedom from live stock diseases.

The forage sources of the national forests, the report continues, contribute to the maintenance of more than 20,000,000 head of live stock. The receipts from grazing, while second to those from timbering, last year were more than $1,000,000 and showed an increase over the previous year. Over four per cent of stock was grazed because of increased forage facility.

Mr. Graves says that the forest service last year sold more than two million board feet of lumber, valued at $1,700,000 on the stump. This, he says, is an increase of 147 per cent over the previous year. The aerial cut was a little under 500,000,000 board feet, an increase of 15 per cent.

Indianapolis to Have Matron for All Society Dances

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Indianapolis, Dec. 12.—Society folk of Indianapolis are up in arms over the passage by the city council of an ordinance which requires the presence of a dance matron, appointed by the superintendent of police at every dance, given in the city after December 15. The act has been signed by the mayor.

The new law provides that no dance in Indianapolis shall be started until the matron, designated by the police superintendent has arrived and been paid her fee of $2. The act also gives the matron wide powers.

The law reads: "The matron is a person with authority to cause any person who offends against the decent proprieties of a social gathering, in the matter of dress, actions or language ejected from the room and building."

XMAS CAROLS WILL BE SUNG BY BIG CHORUS

Between two and four voices will contribute the Christmas eve chorus which will sing carols on the public square where the municipal Christmas tree will be aglow with fancy colored electric lights. If plans of the C. W. K. K. K. director of music in the public schools are successful, the chorus will be carried out by the public schools.

Public school, given charge of the music feature of the program, announced Friday that he will endeavor to have the high school chorus and public school pupils of the eighth grades participate. Each choraleman in Newark has been asked to make announcement from his school, inviting chorists to volunteer their services.

Canton and Massillon have been added to the list of cities which have adopted the municipal Christmas tree idea this year. In both places subscriptions are now being raised to finance the project. From Massillon comes the announcement that men, women and children have been asked to join the "board of trade" of that place in the outdoor celebration. Societies will be invited to sing songs and the Massillon band will furnish music appropriate to the occasion. Every child is to be presented with a gift from a tree 30 feet high, trimmed with myriad electric lights and ornaments proof against the elements.

WILL WITHDRAW APPROPRIATION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 12.—It was decided today to withdraw the bill for the appropriation of $500,000 for German representation at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

This step was taken owing to the strong objections raised by several state ministers.

When the bill came up for further discussion in the Imperial Parliament today Ernest Basserman read the committee's report, stating the arrangement of the ministerial representation against participation in the exposition. The report referred also to confidential statements made to the committee which are understood to have referred to an agreement between Germany and Great Britain to join together in the matter.

Dr. Theodor Lowall, of the ministry of the interior, who was German commissioner at the St. Louis exposition, then rose and reiterated the official objections to participation, saying the German government could not afford the money necessary for proper representation nor could it afford to exhibit as assembled and sent to San Francisco in the fourteen months before the opening of the exhibition.

Fire in Business DISTRICT CAUSES LOSS OF $500,000

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cohoes, N. Y., Dec. 12.—A big fire in the business district was subdued shortly before 8 o'clock after a dozen buildings and manufacturing plants had been destroyed with a loss of nearly a million dollars. One fireman was badly hurt by a falling wall.

The fire started in the Parsons Knitting Mills at Factory and Remsen streets and within two hours had swept a block west to the harbor canal. Ten firemen responded to an appeal for help.

The following plants were swept by the fire: R. S. Clark & Son, printer; Central Knitting company; E. B. Supply Company; Hoff Underwear company; National Textile company; United Waste Manufacturing company; Parsons Milling company; Erie Mill; Atlantic Mill and Halsey Mill.

Sewing machines in Smyrna are being sold on the installment plan.

TO PALE THIN PEOPLE

Druggist W. A. Erman Offers To Pay for Samose If It Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale, thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It blends with the food and aids assimilation, so that when taken for a short time, nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that Druggist W. A. Erman is willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. He makes this offer generally and wants all who are thin, weak and out of health to get a box of Samose from him on those terms.

WILL WITHDRAW APPROPRIATION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 12.—It was decided today to withdraw the bill for the appropriation of $500,000 for German representation at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco.

This step was taken owing to the strong objections raised by several state ministers.

When the bill came up for further discussion in the Imperial Parliament today Ernest Basserman read the committee's report, stating the arrangement of the ministerial representation against participation in the exposition. The report referred also to confidential statements made to the committee which are understood to have referred to an agreement between Germany and Great Britain to join together in the matter.

Dr. Theodor Lowall, of the ministry of the interior, who was German commissioner at the St. Louis exposition, then rose and reiterated the official objections to participation, saying the German government could not afford the money necessary for proper representation nor could it afford to exhibit as assembled and sent to San Francisco in the fourteen months before the opening of the exhibition.

Fire in Business DISTRICT CAUSES LOSS OF $500,000

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cohoes, N. Y., Dec. 12.—A big fire in the business district was subdued shortly before 8 o'clock after a dozen buildings and manufacturing plants had been destroyed with a loss of nearly a million dollars. One fireman was badly hurt by a falling wall.

The fire started in the Parsons Knitting Mills at Factory and Remsen streets and within two hours had swept a block west to the harbor canal. Ten firemen responded to an appeal for help.

The following plants were swept by the fire: R. S. Clark & Son, printer; Central Knitting company; E. B. Supply Company; Hoff Underwear company; National Textile company; United Waste Manufacturing company; Parsons Milling company; Erie Mill; Atlantic Mill and Halsey Mill.

Sewing machines in Smyrna are being sold on the installment plan.

RIFLES SEIZED BY OFFICIALS

Belfast, Ireland, Dec. 12. Custom officers today seized here a consignment of 200 rifles which arrived on board a freight steamer from Germany. This was the largest seizure against the importations of arms and ammunition into Ireland. Captures have been made daily but usually in small lots. Most of the rifles are patterns which have been discarded by European nations.

QUESTION OF "WET OR DRY" AT HANOVER

Secretary O. C. Larason of the Licking County Liquor Licensing Commission was in Hanover Wednesday searching the village and township records of the misty past, to ascertain whether they are "wet or dry."

It appears the village council passed a prohibitory ordinance in May, 1886, nearly 28 years ago. A copy of the records is now in the hands of the commission. The mayor and many of the council serving at that time are now dead.

In all the notes taken on the different readings of the ordinance it always stood four to two, Messrs. Roberts, McVicker, Dashi and Holister voting yes, and Ritchey and Moore voting no. Ed Taylor was clerk, and T. P. Downes, mayor. On July 2, 1886, a bill was allowed. Attorneys Kibler & Kibler for drafting the ordinance. Mr. McVicker is now mayor, and assisted Secretary Larason in looking up the record. Mr. Cooke, the mayor-elect, will take office Jan. 1.

J. H. Rodgers told Secretary Larason a vote was taken on a motion and carried, to make the village wet, several years subsequent to adoption of the ordinance, but he declared it illegal and the matter was stopped there. Records of the council at the time of this motion are lost and the most exhaustive search was made without avail.

Regarding the situation in the township, it is asserted by David Pratt, who has kept a diary, he says, since 1878, that the township voted dry in April, 1888. Horace Evans, who was appointed township clerk a few days ago, gave Secretary Larason access to the township records. All papers and books were examined closely and no records of any township transactions of those years could be found, and, of course, no transcript could be taken.

It is said that many of the old records stored in an old room were swept away by the late floods when Hanover was under water. It is safe to say that Mr. Evans, the new clerk who is in every way well qualified, will keep a complete and satisfactory record during his term. If the board is unable to find anything definite on the situation by any other means, the matter may, possibly be put to a vote, even in which case the result of the election likely would be subject to contest.

INSPECTOR MOORE, FORMER NEWARKITE VISITING IN CITY

George Wendell Moore, immigration inspector of the port of New York is in the city the guest of relatives and may remain through the holidays. Mr. Moore is renewing his old acquaintances and thoroughly enjoying every minute of his stay. He has had charge of many of the noted persons arriving in this country from abroad in the last several years, the latest being Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, noted English militant suffragist. Mr. Moore's offices are located off Battery Park and he has a private fast revenue cutter with which he meets all the big ocean vessels before they land at Ellis Island. Mr. Moore is an interesting conversationalist and entertainer and is probably one of the best posted men in the United States on immigration laws.

TO PAY PENALTY ON GALLOWES FOR GIRL'S MURDER

Montpelier, Vt., Dec. 12.—Governor Fletcher has denied the petition for a stay of execution for Arthur Bosworth sentenced to be hanged on January 2 next for the murder of Mae Labelle at Essex Junction in June, 1911.

Counsel for the condemned man said that because Bosworth was a British subject, the British embassy at Washington was reviewing the case and might ask for a stay of execution.

EGGS PLENTIFUL BUT THEY'RE FROM LAKE WHITE FISH

Washington, Dec. 12.—At a time when the scarcity of eggs is one of the chief topics of public concern, a report comes from the United States bureau of fisheries showing that already this season it has taken 150,000,000 white fish eggs in Lake Erie, by far the greatest ever made. This is 13,000 quarts of the tiny eggs.

Although the government hatching plant at Put-in-Bay on Lake Erie was built to take care of only 100,000,000 eggs, the bureau by farming the eggs out among the various state hatcheries and among its own plants elsewhere, is taking care of this year's enormous catch. The supply of whitefish had been diminishing rapidly in Lake Erie, owing to poor protection, the fish being under four different state and one Canadian province jurisdiction, that careful preparations were made this year to do as much as possible to replenish the supply. In other Great Lakes also large takes of white fish eggs are being reported, 170,000,000 having been taken to date this season in Lake Michigan. Efforts are to be made also to stock some of the northwestern lakes with white fish.

All the eggs taken were on their way to market and would have been lost but for the arrangements made by the bureau of fisheries with the fishermen to allow the former to have the eggs.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agents, Hall's drug store.

Secretary Houston Was Ready to Receive The Ohio Corn Boys

Washington, Dec. 12.—Secretary Houston of the department of agriculture, has issued a formal statement replying to a criticism that he did not receive the Ohio corn boys when they were here last week. The secretary declares that he was ready and willing to see the boys and that he was in his office at the hour when, according to his understanding of the arrangements, they were to appear. In fact, about 100 of the boys did appear at his office and were received, he declared. In correspondence made public with his statement was a letter to the secretary cancelling the engagement to receive the corn growers. The director of the party, T. H. Riddle, of Lima, Ohio, wrote that as the "boys and girls were footsore and lacking in sleep" he thought it advisable to lighten the program. After receiving the letter, Secretary Houston replied expressing his regret at not having met all the Ohio boys and girls in the party.

Has Supplanted Ella Flagg Young As Superintendent

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Opposition to the supplanting of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young as superintendent of schools was promised today by the heads of women's clubs, public school teachers organizations and parents and teachers association.

John D. Shoop, former assistant superintendent who replaces Mrs. Young, assumed office today. Those opposed to the change anxiously awaited word from the mayor's office.

Mayor Harrison declared last night that the ballot by the school board was controlled by "underhand methods."

"I am sorry that men I appointed," he said, "would resort to such methods to bring about an action they know contrary to the wishes of the administration. If I had known that such a move was contemplated I could and would have stopped it."

"Some of the members of the board of education placed their resignations in my hands before taking office," said Mayor Harrison today. "Later I gave up the practice of asking for the resignations of my appointees. I am not pleased at this time that I abandoned that rule."

Theaters

"Everywoman."

The puzzling nature of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," with its acres of scenery, its special symphony orchestra, and its dramatic ensemble of 150 people, will be made clear at the Auditorium Wednesday and Thursday, January 17 and 18, with Thursday matinee when Henry W. Savage will offer the massive production for the first time in this city. It has been the entertainment of the town of grand opera, musical comedy, and drama, but it is a clever admixture of the whole and while it amuses it has a deep moral lesson and instructs as well. Many people who seldom go to the theatre have decided to see "Everywoman."

The success of this piece has achieved in America has been duplicated in London in the big Drury Lane Theatre production. Over three millions of people have witnessed "Everywoman" and it is safe to say that at this moment fully two-thirds will see it again. It defies some of the most cherished traditions of the theatre and that, perhaps, is one of the reasons for its remarkable hold on the town. It has an engrossing story, telling of the adventures of a beautiful young and beautiful woman of our day who sets out from her home in search of love. Her quest leads her into strange places. At one time she is behind the scenes of a grand old theatre, herself the leading actress, a petted favorite at another she is holding forth in a sumptuous apartment in a city, the toast of the town, surrounded by her worshipers and suitors. At a still later period she has paid the toll for her dissipation and is alone and friendless, wandering the streets at midnight, as refugees are celebrating the passing of the old year and are welcoming the advent of the new. The production is on an enormous scale and no expense has been spared either in the sets employed or in the selection of a company which includes both comic and dramatic stars of the first magnitude.

"Peg of My Heart."

Society, always on the qui vive when a scandal is blown in the bottle dramatis success, is announced to visit Newark Monday, December 15, in preparation for a good "Peg of My Heart," the best of comedies. This delightful comedy from the pen of J. Hartley Manners was produced by Laurette Taylor at the Port Theatre, New York, over a year ago and made an instantaneous success, and it is such.

Frozen and Dried Eggs are the Next Thing on Program

Associated Press Telegrams. — Washington, Dec. 12.—(By Mary E. Peck.) A word of the department of agriculture told the house agriculture committee today that frozen and dried eggs would solve the problem of high prices and cold storage shortages.

"Frozen and dried eggs," said Dr. H. H. Henshaw, senior and in charge of the small business section, "are available to every household instead of for farmers and other manufacturers as at present. Hard frozen eggs will keep a year and there is no question but what dried and frozen eggs will ultimately displace the cold storage variety."

Eggs cannot be kept in cold storage and be fit for food longer than 10 months, he asserted, and added that dried and frozen eggs did not lose any of their nutritive value.

MOTHER LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

Do be careful! If cross, feverish, constipated, bilious, give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs." then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

"This community Christmas tree idea seems to be spreading over the country. So far sixteen cities have announced plans for a big tree with band and choral music and treat the night of Christmas. New York was the first to have such a treat last year and is in the list of cities this year. Other cities are Philadelphia, Chicago, Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Hartford, Rochester, Utica, Minneapolis, Newark, O., Dayton and Schenectady. There's a wonderful spread of good will this season, and there's going to be some peace on earth and happiness for childhood."

HOOSIERS WANT CHANGE MADE IN INCOME TAX LAW

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Indianapolis, Dec. 12.—The Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce has started a movement for a nationwide appeal to congress to suspend or modify the provisions of the income tax law providing deduction of the tax at the source and the substitution of methods enabling the government to obtain at the source, information for enforcing correct returns from taxpayers. More than 1,000 letters containing a copy of a memorial recently adopted by the chamber, were sent to many cities yesterday advocating the change and soliciting cooperation.

WAR VETERAN ATTACKED BY HOLDUP MEN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, Dec. 12.—As the result of an attack by three holdup men in the public square here early this morning, James Wood, 73, civil war veteran, is dying in a hospital. Wood was standing in a doorway waiting for a street car when the trio stopped him and attempted to rob him. The approach of a policeman caused them to throw the old man over a railing into a basement stair opening and run. Wood was found with his skull fractured by the officer.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive full of sediment, irregular of passing or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will feel fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

A SOUR STOMACH GAS, INDIGESTION

Each "Pape's Diapepsin" digests 3,000 grains food, ending stomach misery in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.

OLD "CIMEX" IS NOW BLAMED FOR TUBERCULOSIS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Dec. 12.—The cimex, lectularius, less elegantly but more familiarly known as the bedbug, is a still more dangerous insect than is generally supposed.

It is a potent factor in the transmission of tuberculosis, according to Dr. J. Walling Beveridge who has presented a paper on the subject at the conference on safety and sanitation which is being held in this city.

He said that it was only recently that the bedbug had been given serious consideration as a carrier of germs but that lately a number of authorities were agreeing upon the possibility that leprosy and spinal meningitis germs were carried by this household pest and that numerous cases had recently been cited where tuberculosis infection had been seemingly caused by the bedbug.

It has been discovered that the bug is able to live 229 days without food, he remarked incidentally in urging that a publicity campaign be conducted to warn housewives of the grave consequence which might result in permitting the bedbug to live.

BATTLE ROYAL OF GUN MEN IN MADISON SQUARE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Dec. 12.—Fifty shots were fired this morning near the Fourth Avenue entrance of Madison Square Garden in a battle royal between two gangs that have infested the garden during the six-day bicycle race. A Madison Avenue street car was commandeered by one of the elements as a barricade while bullets whizzed in all directions.

Passengers threw themselves face downward on the floor. The police were prompt in reaching the scene but the combatants jumped into automobiles. So far as it is known no one was hurt, a remarkable fact in view of the promiscuous shooting. It is said that the battle started in a row over the right of rival leaders to furnish "strong arm" men for special police work in the garden.

Oil Wells at Tuxpam, Mexico, Now Under Control of Rebels.

Control of the territory about the oil wells of Tuxpam, Mex., has made it possible for the Rebels to prevent the operation of the National Railways of Mexico, and thus shut out Dictator Huerta's troops. The Rebel commanders plainly told the managers of the companies operating these wells that they must not ship to the railway company, locomotives of which burn oil. If they did the wells would be blown up. Despite contracts for the delivery of oil for fuel on the railways the plants had to cease shipments.

Since then the troops of Huerta have not been able to operate in the northern part of Mexico. One result, it was said, was the evacuation of Chihuahua, one of the richest cities on the north, and the flight of more than 2,000 troops and citizens across the desert to the American boundary.

The oil wells about Tuxpam are among the richest in the world. In fact, it is considered by oil experts that within a few years the wells on the east coast of Mexico will be depended on for the larger part of the world's supply. At this time the immense properties are owned by the company controlled by Lord Cowdray, the Rockefeller, and Clay Pierce. The district, after the settlement of peace in Mexico, is likely to be the scene of one of the biggest booms the world has known.

SWIMMING POOL AT SEA.

A new pleasure has been added to sea travel by the luxurious baths and swimming pools on the great ocean liners. Sea bath pools are provided filled with salt water where the passengers may bathe at any hour of the day. The pools are under the direction of a trained attendant, and many people taking advantage of the leisure of a sea voyage learn to swim during the trip. The pools are large enough to allow polo, croquet and other aquatic sports, while the surrounding galleries accommodate a large audience. The swimming pool shown in the accompanying photograph is aboard the cruising steamer Victoria Lube of the Hamburg-Amerika line.

Salt and Fresh Water Lakes.
Fresh water lakes are always only expansions of rivers, due to the particular topographical configuration of a valley. They are all characterized by the fact that the water that they receive runs out either continuously or intermittently and that the chemical composition of their water remains constantly the same as that of the streams and rivers of the same region. Salt lakes, on the other hand, are always closed basins, without outlet, and their water is removed only by surface evaporation. These facts being well understood, we see at once why the former lakes contain fresh water and the others salt water. Water is nature's great solvent. Hardly a single substance, simple or compound, escapes its dissolving action. Consequently the water that flows over the earth's surface or in its depths contains constantly in solution substances that finally accumulate in the great common reservoir, the ocean, whose mass, removed only by evaporation, becomes more and more charged with saline matter.

He Curbed Cecil Rhodes.
Rhodes' masterfulness and sense of importance met with little opposition, as a rule, but a little German clerk in the Transvaal government offices at Johannesburg before the war once taught him a lesson. "Please attend to me at once!" thundered the colossal. "I can't wait." "When your turn comes, mister," replied the clerk. "Confound you, man, don't you know who I am?" asked Rhodes. "Oh, yes, I know you, but don't worry about me," was the clerk's unflinching reply. "If you were in Cape Town I'd have you discharged at once!" roared the great man. "Yes," said the clerk, very coolly. "I've heard they discharge people in Cape Town for doing their duty. But this isn't Cape Town—this is a republic!"—Manchester Guardian.

An Australian Courtship.
When William of Tree Fern made up to Kate Ryan the moon was bright and the weather was feeling good. He escorted her home over the two mile road, and never a word said he but "It's a bonzer night for possums, Kate."

Next night he met her again and poured the same remark into her shell-like ear. This went on for a week, and Kate bore it patiently, in the belief that when the moon waned and darkness was upon the earth and the stars thereof, William would be more explicit.

So one dark night she encouraged him all she could, but without making her bashful lover loosen his tongue until the journey home was nearly completed. Then he blurted it out. "Kate," he said, "er—" "Yes, William," she murmured. "Er—a bloke wouldn't have a dog's chance with the possums tonight." That settled Bill—Sydney Bulletin.

Verlaine and the Burglars.
According to a contemporary, a Paris beggar, seeing an old man about to give him a halfpenny, showed his contempt for the gift by taking a silver coin from his own pocket and bestowing it on the alms-giver. Let us hope the recipient fared better than Paul Verlaine did under somewhat similar circumstances. One night the poet woke up to find a couple of burglars in his room. Shortly before he had been driven by poverty to sell every stick of furniture and was reduced to sleeping on a sack. His visitors were so touched by this evidence of dire poverty that they gave him a franc apiece and took their departure. "Unfortunately," Verlaine had to admit when he related the story, "both the coins were bad ones."—London Tatler.

Overcoming Self-Consciousness
One of the most frequent queries that comes to me from young girls anxious to be popular—and this is a perfectly legitimate desire—is how to overcome self-consciousness. They write me that they are bashful, that they are diffident, that they do not know what to say, that their hands seem terribly in the way. And they ask is there any way to overcome these handicaps to social success.
The only remedy is the one thing that is most difficult for them to do—forget themselves. The fact that they can't forget themselves is what makes them self-conscious; and to tell them that this is the only remedy is like recommending a trip to Europe to one whose purse is empty.
But the deed can be accomplished. It cannot be done all at once perhaps; but if the attack is made upon the enemy, outpost after outpost can be captured; and before the one waging the fight knows it, victory will be hers.

One way to forget one's self is to fill the mind with the thoughts of others. If the girl who is self-conscious will try, when she enters a room to think how kind she is to see her friends, instead of wondering how she looks and what others are thinking of her, she will lose the sense of awkwardness, and will enter with ease. If when she goes to a luncheon or dinner, she will stop worrying as to whether she will do the right thing, but will think of her hostess' kindness in inviting her, and unselfishly try to entertain those who sit near her, all nervousness will disappear and she will find herself entering into the fun of the affair as heartily as the others.
She needs to begin this mental work before she leaves home for whatever affair she has on hand. Instead of regarding it with apprehension, and as an ordeal, as many a diffident girl does, she should resolutely turn her thoughts from this aspect of it, and think of the pleasure of meeting her young associates, of seeing their pretty dresses, of taking part in their games or amusements that may be provided. She should think of these things happily, keep her mind on the bright side of them, and this spirit will finally take possession of her. And she will find herself arriving at her hostess' house in a frame of mind to enter with zest into the gayeties there. And self will be forgotten.

Then she should also deliberately cultivate an interest in the interests of her young friends. If she posts herself a little on photography, she can enter into the enthusiasms of her camera friends. If she will learn a little about baseball, she can listen intelligently to the baseball talk of other of her companions. If she will take an interest in fancy work, the girls who are needleworkers will find pleasure in her company. And when her thoughts are filled with these things, she forgets her hands; she ceases to be quiet; and she will soon step out of the wall-flower class. It requires a resolute effort to do this. The bashful girl must determine upon a definite course of action, plan it out and stick to it. But if she will do this, she will drive out the enemy within her borders, and soon be as happy, and have as many friends, as the other girls of her set.

EUROPEAN CUSTOM IN VOGUE

To the Outsider Whole Fuss Seems Out of Place in Latter Day Jeffersonianism—Jim Ham Lewis a Great Defender of His Faith—Sisson Explains Why Expenditures Increase.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Dec. 12.—[Special.]—Prating of precedence sounds rather out of place in a democracy, particularly when the real democracy is in charge of every branch of the government. The senate has practically gone on a strike against social functions where senators are not given precedence over cabinet officers and ambassadors, as well as other functionaries.

The women of congress, wives of members of the house, went on a strike until assured that calls they made on the wives of cabinet officers would be returned. Wives of senators refuse to make first calls on wives of cabinet officers because the senators claim precedence over cabinet officers.

This "precedence" consists in who shall walk first in or out of a room, who shall be seated nearest the hostess at a dinner table and such other functions where "rank" can be considered.

Borrowed From Europe.

Most of this stuff is borrowed from Europe. Let a man in the diplomatic corps get out of his proper place in the matter of "precedence" and he is hustled back mighty quick. All dinner entertainers are scrupulously careful to see that foreigners are given places according to their rank. But it is much harder in regard to senators. And foreign ambassadors would not like to be "placed below" senators and members of the house. Yet the representatives have the same claim to precedence as given senators because they compose a co-ordinate branch of the national legislature. But the whole fuss seems out of place in this latter day Jeffersonianism.

"Defender of the Faith."

James Hamilton Lewis should be given the title of "defender of the faith," for he certainly beats every other senator to it in standing up for the actions of the administration and "hurling back defiance" to those Republican senators who criticize the administration's interference with congress. And no man is so big that this "Jack the Giant Killer" is afraid of him. Elihu Root, Senator Cummins, Burton of Ohio, Reed Smoot and, in fact, any or all of the Republican leaders are met by the flow of oratorical acrobatics from Jim Ham Lewis whenever they criticize the policies and actions of the administration.

"On the Other Foot."

All the old adages fit situations in the United States senate. "Chickens come home to roost" in the case of Senator Owen not long ago. He was berating the Republicans for delaying and talking long on the currency bill, which he was trying to have passed, and became involved in a controversy with Senator Gallinger.

"I remember," said the New Hampshire senator, "a prolonged and uninteresting speech that the senator from Oklahoma made not long ago occupying six hours and by filibustering defeating the will of the senate."

But that was in another session, on another bill and under different circumstances.

Brandagee Wouldn't Scare.

The opponents of the Hatch-Hatch bill sent tons of literature, letters and postal cards to everybody in Washington calling on them to "stop this grab," to "prevent this steal," to "defeat the grafters." These and similar terms were applied to those who were in favor of the bill. Senator Brandagee of Connecticut took up the matter and said that a senator would be a contemptible person if he became scared by such demonstrations when two committees of congress had reported the bill favorably and no evidence was offered that "crooks," "grafters" or the like were really concerned in securing its passage.

Why Expenditures Grow.

Congressman Sisson of Mississippi like most members of the appropriations committee, has the habit of preaching economy unless, like all other members of that committee, the piling process does not come too close home. In explaining how expenditures grew Sisson said to the house: "I never saw a man in this house who was the advocate of a certain great expenditure who was not willing to vote for the extravagance advocated by other fellows." He went on to explain that it had become part of the business of members to get all they could in the way of federal money in order to make their campaigns for return to congress.

Had His Say.

Congressman Fowler talked on a resolution for adjournment the other day but he really talked about trusts and the methods they took in regard to recent tariff duties. Fowler says it is evident that certain combinations have stopped production in order to make the tariff unpopular.

OHIO'S BEST FOR FARMERS' WEEK.

Not since Farmers Week was instituted at Ohio State University three years ago has there been such an excellent program arranged as this year. Almost every timely topic of vital interest to the farmers in this state will be discussed some time during the week by men who are authorities upon their particular subjects. The list of speakers will include W. O. Thompson, Alfred Vivian, H. C. Price, A. B. Graham, W. R. Lazerby, A. G. McCall, Oscar Erf, Wendell Paddock, H. C. Ramsower, V. H. Davis, F. S. Jacoby, L. P. Bailey and D. J. Kays of the Ohio State University; C. E. Thorne, C. G. Williams and B. E. Carmichael of the Ohio Experiment Station; Dr. Paul Fischer, A. P. Sandles, Norman Shaw and S. E. Strick of the Ohio Agricultural commission; C. G. Hopkins and Fred H. Barkin of the University of Illinois; H. J. Waters, president of the Kansas Agricultural College; G. I. Corbitt, Purdue University, Indiana; and K. H. Talbot, concrete expert of Chicago. An especially attractive program has been arranged for the women who attend. Many of the most important talks will be given at the joint sessions for both men and women.

BOOKS FOR NEW READING COURSE.

Choice has been made by the Ohio State University of the books that will be used in their new farmers' reading course, which will cover the subjects of soil fertility, animal husbandry and rural sociology. The books to be used are: First Principles of Soil Fertility by Alfred Vivian; The Farmers in Animal Husbandry by C. S. Plumb; The Challenge of the Country by G. W. Fiske. A series of questions for the study of these books will be furnished by the University. Since a considerable work requires so much clerical work, this reading course has been offered to take the place of the time being. Any person or organization desiring the reading course, should write A. B. Graham, College of Agriculture, Ohio State University.

MILK THAT WOULDN'T SOUR.

J. A. Spears of Clinton county, Ohio, started 25 years ago with two cows to build up a herd of dairy cattle. Now he has 53 head of selected milk cows and many head of promising young stock coming on. While he has been building up his herd, Mr. Spears has also done everything possible to make conditions sanitary in and around his stables and other places where the milk has to be handled. How well he succeeded is brought out in a story of the loss of one of his customers. The milking through cotton and cheese cloth, Mr. Spears has been able to keep milk sweet for seventeen days in an ordinary spring house without the use of any ice or preservatives. A customer, who lived in one of the nearby towns, wanting to use some sour milk for culinary purposes, set a bottle of milk from this day outside his house, thinking that it would soon sour. When it was found in the morning that the milk was not sour, she took Mr. Spears to task for using preservatives, remarking that she was accustomed to getting pure milk, and that that would sour overnight. As the result of this incident, she refused to buy further of him. Inquiries as to the firm belief he was holding that pure milk is really the best milk, and the milk of a high grade, as it would not sour even under unfavorable conditions, such as a short haul as one or two days.

It was originally intended for teachers in the elementary and high schools. It is now being treated by Prof. A. B. Graham, who has treated the subjects in such a way as to make them of interest and instructive. It is adapted for use in rural schools as it explains in a simple way reasons for some of the important operations of the farm. Dangers of Crowds.

When a man is standing still his weight acts vertically downward, but on moving he exerts a side thrust greater than his weight. Consequently a crowd moving rapidly on a structure like a pier exerts a tremendous side-wise pressure which tends to throw the pier over. If a man stands on a plank bridge it bends slightly, but if he walks across it swings violently up and down. A regiment of soldiers marching in step across a trestle or other light bridge would cause such a tremendous swaying motion that it would give way, and so soldiers always "break step" in crossing such a bridge.

On a certain swing footbridge across a glen in the north of Scotland is a notice forbidding Newfoundland dogs to be taken across. These dogs trot in such perfect rhythm as to cause a dangerous "sway" in a small bridge.

A man rising to a standing from a sitting posture exerts on the ground a force equal to twice his weight. Thus when a crowd suddenly springs to its feet at a football match or theater the strain on the supporting stands is enormous and has to be allowed for by the engineers.—Pearson's Weekly.

Cards For Juliet.

A charming custom among tourists at Verona is that of leaving their visiting cards at the reputed tomb of Juliet. This act, however, must be taken as a pretty compliment to the immortal love story rather than as an offering in memoriam, for it is unlikely that travelers have not learned that the tomb is in reality one of those pieces of fiction so dear to the sentimental and that even Shakespeare's tragedy itself is generally held to have no historical basis. A writer in the Graphic of London says, "The so called tomb of red Veronese marble, in the gardens of the Orphanage, was formerly a washing trough." Another writer is no less severe. "There is plenty to see in Verona," he says, "the cities of northern Italy, without wasting time, money and emotion in looking at frauds." But the custom remains and will remain as long as there are tourists.

Neglect of the Scalp.

Inheritance has something to do with baldness. Men in a family usually have a disposition to get bald at about the same age. Certain scalp diseases cause baldness, but the largest factor in baldness is neglect. The scalp is exceedingly dirty in the average run of men and boys. If any other six inches of skin were kept as dirty as the scalp it would be considered a disgrace. There is no reason why boys should not be taught to wash the hair with soap and water every day, then dry and brush it well. As soon as the boy gets old enough to wash his ears and to keep his face clean down to the collar line he should also keep his scalp clean. If the hair after washing is too dry a little grease can be used. Following this plan there should be no premature baldness. Generally the horse is out before the stable door is locked.—Chicago Tribune.

Nice Distinction.

In a restaurant in the Wall street district, where a stock ticker attracts a large crowd of interested men at the "opening" hour every morning, a young Japanese has become one of the regulars, and his remarks when the various tape wise oracles hold forth have afforded those who watch the eager group no little amusement. The questions why X. Y. Z. continues to sag and the possibility of a cut in the dividend of O. P. B. seem as easy of solution to him as they are to veterans like Mr. Near Broke or Mr. Has Been. Mr. Once Rich said to him recently, "Bet you a cigar A. B. C. goes higher before it goes down." "No," he said, "no gamble—only speculate," and he pointed a nervous finger at the ticker.—New York Tribune.

Flogged Only Geniuses at Eton.

Some of the hardships of life at Eton in bygone times might be regarded as complimentary to the sufferers. Only the best of the boys were called upon to bear them. The biographer of Dr. Parr records that the famous Eton "head" "believed in flogging for all offenses and even for absence of offense," but never punished stunted capacity or tried to extort much from mediocrity. If Parr made up his mind that a boy was to be classed as "mediocre" that boy enjoyed practical immunity from the birch ever after. But when the head assistant told the doctor "I believe So-and-so is a lad of genius" the answer was: "Say you so? Then let the flogging begin tomorrow!"—London Chronicle.

Mixture of Harmony.

Mrs. Sharp to next door neighbor:—How do you like the design of our new wall paper? Neighbor:—It seems to me to be rather loud. Mrs. Sharp:—Yes, that's why we select it. We thought it might drown the sound of your daughter's piano playing!—London Telegraph.

The Family Doctor.

"I'm the family doctor."
"But I thought you were a veterinary surgeon?"
"So I am. But then, you see, their family consists of a French terrier, a St. Bernard and a Chinese poodle!"—Detroit Free Press.

Virginia Dare.

The first white child born on the American continent was Virginia Dare. She was born on Roanoke Island in 1587. She was the grandchild of Governor John White.

Courage in a quality all will need some day.

Planning the Christmas Campaign

If you are one of those who last year, as Christmas Day drew near, found yourself rushing frantically about trying to accomplish a dozen and one things at the last minute, and finally coming to Christmas Day so worn out there was little pleasure in the anniversary itself, wouldn't it be well to plan a bit this year, so as not to repeat the year's performance? A few quiet minutes with paper and pencil at the beginning of the game will prevent much of the rush and worry at the end. Even with the most careful planning, some things are sure to go wrong and upset your calculations; and when these unexpected calamities fall upon you when you are about as nearly distracted as it is possible to be, they are the last straw. And what otherwise might be a happy Christmas is thus often spoiled by the lack of a little forethought and planning.

One of the first things to consider carefully is the amount of time you have at your disposal for Christmas shopping and Christmas preparations generally. Then try to adjust your work to your time. You won't have any more time by using it in a haphazard manner, nor by trying to crowd into it more than can be done. Either plan will result in confusion and worry, and with less accomplished, than if you scheme to use every minute to its best advantage. And if you find you can't get done all you want to do, either change your plans or give up something. It will pay in the end. It may seem to you that such a course will make your Christmas a failure. But it will really be a step toward success. For it will mean that what you do undertake you will accomplish. And you will eliminate a lot of worry.

The second thing to consider carefully is how much money you can spend for Christmas.

Many of us overwork, but many more of us over-spend. And the worry of the cost of Christmas is one of our greatest burdens and takes much of the pleasure out of the season.

We ought to plan to obviate this. We ought to decide definitely how much we can afford to spend and then portion it out among those on our list. And it would be wise to leave a margin over; for, as a rule, things cost more than we expect, and if we estimate to spend all we have allowed, the probability is the actual expenditure will be much above what we have calculated.

In addition to planning in the matter of time, of money, and of gifts, plan also the little details, such as the cards to be enclosed, the wrapping, and the sending. Make sure you have all the cards, the paper, the ribbon or string, the seals—if you use them,—and all the other little et ceteras that you need for making your packages Christmasy. Or else, right in the midst of getting your packages off, when time is pressing, you will run out of wrapping material, or cards, or something absolutely essential. Long in advance, get all the postage stamps you need, so that you will not have to wait in line at the postoffice window. And if it is possible to have your packages weighed in advance, do this, or you will lose much valuable time.

All this is an old story to fore-handed people. But judging by the crowds rushing frantically about buying gifts at the last minute, and by the lights burning far into the night, where tired Christmas workers are putting the last stitches on fairy work, or wrapping packages, it would seem as if there are few fore-handed people. And perhaps we might run our own Christmas campaign more successfully, if we would start in right now and lay careful plans.

"The signs of the times" might well be applied to the fads and fancies of style, for in the past several years, the styles to a certain degree have been governed by current events and happenings. As proof of this witness the important result in fashions, of the disturbances among the Bulgarian states.

And so it continues and for the spring we will have the tango hat made up of the tango shades. Also the manufacturers promise many adaptations from certain periods of the Mexican styles, and the wild dashes of color combinations will be truly Mexican. This much tribute will the fashions pay to the disturbances in Mexico.

Mr. Adolph Stern of the millinery firm of Stern & Son of Philadelphia was in the city today and in talking of the ideas for spring millinery said the hats would be very small. Aside from this only one thing can be said as to shape, and that will be variety. They will be of every conceivable angle and turn, and the trimmings will be high. Great quantities of flowers will be used, especially the smaller flowers. Forget-me-nots will reign supreme, one of the best color combinations, being wreaths of pink, white and blue, with touches of black.

The most vivid hues will be selected, and they will be built to mountainous heights. The new tango shades, will be especially new in brown and tan. A new shade of red will be noted and the new one will be near a delectable blue.

Originality will be the predominant note. The queerer and more out of place, apparently, you can place a feather, a cluster of flowers or a knot of ribbon—the odder or more irregular the shape, the more up to date you will be.

EMPLOYEES OF B. & O. ROAD GET LAY-OFF

Following the general policy of retrenchment which railroads throughout the country have declared a necessity, orders have been issued from the main offices of the Pennsylvania lines, laying off 500 men employed in the Dennison shops, and 600 employed in Columbus.

The month's appropriation for the B. & O. has been cut several thousand dollars, and officials here admitted Friday that the present reduction in the entire motive power department of the Newark shops had received a lay-off order affecting approximately 150 men. At present this cut is regarded as temporary, but there are some indications that it may extend beyond the present month.

The local machine and boiler shops, roundhouse and half-roundhouse are especially hard hit by the order.

The pay-car, which had not been a feature of the B. & O. system for a long time, made its appearance here Friday morning.

Local officials of the Pennsylvania company say in substance that "persecution of the railroads" has made it necessary for them to forego contemplated improvement and lay off employees to cut expenses. Railroad officials had placed some hope on the permission to make a five per cent increase in freight rates, but now since the commission has deferred giving answer until sometime in March, the railroads have lost hope, it is said.

Laying off of thousands of men in the Pittsburgh steel district has had its weight in bringing about the retrenchment policy of the railroads. Officials say that fully 50,000 men in the Pittsburgh steel industry have been laid off duty, thus cutting out a big percentage of the freight traffic.

RECRUIT TRIES TO ASSASSINATE MAJOR THORPE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 12.—Brooding over alleged wrongs inflicted on him during confinement in the naval prison here, Frederick Richardt, a discharged naval apprentice, today fired upon the commander of the prison, Major C. Thorpe, of the marine corps. The bullet missed its target by a few inches.

Richardt fired from the curbstone as Major Thorpe passed in an automobile. The bullet went through the car just below where the Major was sitting. Richardt told the police he had been trying to shoot Major Thorpe since Monday and had fired at him yesterday. Richardt was discharged from the naval prison on December 2, after serving eleven months for an offense committed at the Newport training station.

ETHER CAUSES A WOMAN'S DEATH ON OPERATING TABLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, Dec. 12.—A coroner's physician began today an investigation of the death of Mrs. Helen L. Mackay, widow of the Rev. Dr. Don-Sage Mackay, for many years pastor of the Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas on Fifth Avenue and president of the General Synod of the Reformed church in America. Mrs. Mackay died yesterday afternoon under the influence of ether on an operating table in a private hospital where she had registered a few hours before as Mrs. J. H. Stone of Boston.

In her handbag on which she had scribbled her name and address, was found a card which led to her identification. The belief that she was suffering from an incurable disease led to her visit to the hospital for examination, according to the theory of the coroner. Ether was given at her own request and for the purpose of aiding in the examination. Heart failure under the anaesthetic caused death.

Until early today the body lay unclaimed. Then a daughter sought to have the body removed to an undertaker. She was not permitted to do so until the coroner's examination could be completed.

Mrs. Mackay was a daughter of the late J. Gregory Smith, one time governor of Vermont from whom she inherited a large fortune. She was prominent in New York society. Dr. Mackay died suddenly in a railroad station in Portland, Me., in August, 1908.

After an autopsy, Dr. Otto H. Schultze, the coroner's physician announced that a minor operation had been performed upon Mrs. Mackay. He added that before officially stating the cause of death or signing the death certificate, he would confer with Dr. Henry Well, Mrs. Mackay's physician. Mrs. Mackay visited Dr. Well's office last Wednesday and arranged for the operation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Fond du Lac, Wis., Dec. 12.—Four hundred and fifty empty potato cars were counted on railroad tracks here today. The condition resulted from a determination by Wisconsin growers not to ship until prices advanced. Word that the southern crop is suffering from scab is said to have caused the growers to believe potatoes will sell soon for a dollar a bushel.

Spot's Friend

By ELDON SPEAKE
[Copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.]

DEAR Mr. Santa, I don't know you, And maybe it's just as well. For, been's you never done nothin' for me.

I ain't quite so 'fraid to tell What it is that I'd like to have you do Just as quickly as ever you can. And maybe some day I can pay you back If I ever grow up to a man.

A dog catcher came here last week and took My puppy away somewhere. And I am so lame that I can't go look And get him away from there. And even if I could go where he's at I haven't no dollar to buy And if you will kindly advance me that I'll try and return it some day.

"SPOT—THAT'S HIS NAME."

You know, my papa he went and died And left just my mamma and me And Spot—that's his name—and we cried and cried.

For we missed him a lot, we three. And mamma she works, and we got along. And Spot he stayed home with me And never went out, for I'm not very strong.

And I have to have some one, you see. The dog man that took him away he said He'd keep him ten days in the pound. And after that time poor Spot'll be dead— And three days from now Spot'll be drowned.

So please, Mr. Santa, if you can spare A dollar to set Spot free, Please take it and give to the man up there And send home my puppy to me.

And please, Mr. Santa, if you haven't got No dollar to spend that way, I wish that at least you would go see Spot And tell him we'll meet some day. And if you don't mind that he's not very clean.

And if there's nobody to see, I wish you'd just kinda—he'll know what you mean— Just give him a pat for me.

HOW TO SPEND CHRISTMAS.

Forget Yourself For the Day and Try to Make Others Happy.

DAY off, a few remembrances from relatives and friends and a good dinner—is that all that Christmas means to you? Surely you are going to make it an occasion for more than usual rejoicing this year, a real old-fashioned Christmas. Surely you are going to be more liberal in spirit than ever before and scatter merriment on all sides. Have you been a little selfish, have you devoted so much time to enjoying yourself that you have forgotten other folks?

Those you have forgotten are good folks, aren't they, the best folks in the world? And you are just going to show them how appreciative you are. You don't like this modern way of turning dear old Christmas into an occasion for trading and exchanging gifts. You are going to see all the friends you can on that day and shake hands with as many; pat them on the back and tell them how glad you are to be with them. And to those you cannot see you are going to write cheery, warm hearted letters and tell them you want to hear from them oftener. Isn't that how you feel about the greatest of all birthdays?

PLUM PUDDING AND MINCE PIE CHRISTMAS NECESSARIES

Plum pudding and mince pie are minor but necessary accompaniments of Christmas day, and strangely enough the former was long ago accepted as typical of the riches and spices brought by the three wise men to the child in the manger, while the Christmas pie was held in abhorrence by all members of strict puritanical bodies, who believed:

All plums the prophets' sons deny, And spice broth's are too hot; Treason's in the December pie And death within the pot.

"MONA LISA" FOUND IN ITALY; THIEF ARRESTED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Florence, Italy, Dec. 12.—Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece, "Mona Lisa," the mysterious disappearance of which from the Louvre in August, 1911, threw the art world into consternation, was found today in Florence.

The man who stole it was arrested. He is an Italian.

CAPTAIN SWANK UNEARTHS VERY IMPORTANT CASE

In the arrest of a stranger at a local hotel shortly after midnight, Friday, Police Captain Swank probably has unearthed a case that will elicit attention of the postal authorities it is said.

The police department is said to be in possession of evidence which supports the belief that the stranger was responsible for bringing from Columbus a young woman to be used as a tool in fleeing victims the man was to round up. This information is said to be imparted to the police in a letter which came into the possession of Captain Swank. After interviewing the girl, who came here from Columbus Sunday, the captain and Patrolman Corder arrested the man. He came here Monday, it is said.

BREWERIES MUST GIVE UP CONTROL OF ALL SALOONS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Dec. 12.—According to a notice received today by the Hamilton county liquor license board from the state board, the latter intends to absolutely divorce the saloons from brewery control in Ohio.

The local board was instructed to make close investigation of transfers and take the full ten days time before announcing decisions. Special attention was to be paid to licenses which breweries controlled.

The state board has no intention of seeking the removal of Mayor Hunt. Besides the police, state and county inspectors, the Anti-Saloon League and the ministers of Cincinnati are to keep the saloons under surveillance on Sundays, it is said.

"If there is any violation of the Sunday closing law in Cincinnati it is not with the knowledge or consent of the present administration," declared Mayor Hunt today.

"I had a telephone conversation last night with Byron Clendenning of the state liquor licensing board, and he assured me that the report that the state board proposes to censure us is without foundation. I told Mr. Clendenning that if the state board could furnish us with evidence of members of the police department neglecting their duty with regard to saloonkeepers violating the Sunday laws, or any other of the liquor laws, we would prosecute them."

FARM HAND, 32, KILLS HIMSELF AT ZANESVILLE

Zanesville, Dec. 12.—When William King, a farm hand on the William Marple farm, five miles west of here, heard a shot last night he went out into the front yard and found the dead body of Charles Jewell, aged thirty-two, a laborer of the Holbein farm, nearby. Jewell had committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. The motive is unknown.

GLOBE TROTTER PLANS VISIT TO EVERY NATION

Andrew G. Haight of New York, will lecture tonight at the Orpheum theater on his experience after a year's travel on a trip around the world. He has covered 17,600 miles in a little more than a year, 4,000 of which he has traveled on foot. He is making the trip on a wager, according to his own statement, that he can visit every civilized nation on the globe in ten years. He is not allowed to solicit aid or charge any fixed sum for his entertainments, though he may accept gifts. Haight is 51 years old.

A Feel In the Christmas Air

By JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

THEY'S a kind o' feel in the air to me
When the Chris'mas times sets in
That's about as much of a mystery
As ever I've run ag'in.
For instance, now, while I gain in weight
And gineral health, I swear
They's a goneness somers I can't quite state—
A kind o' feel in the air.

They's a feel in the Chris'mas air goes right
To the spot where a man lives at!
It gives a feller a appetite—
They ain't no doubt about that!
And yit they's somepin—I don't know what—
That follers me here and there
And ha'ts and worries and spares me not—
A kind o' feel in the air.

They's a feel, as I say, in the air that's jest
As blamed-on sad as sweet.
In the same ra-sho as I feel the best
And am the spryest on my feet
They's allus a kind o' sort of a ache
That I can't locate nowhere,
But it comes with Chris'mas, and no mistake—
A kind o' feel in the air.

Is it the racket the children raise?
Why, no!—God bless 'em, no!
Is it the eyes and the cheeks ablaze,
Like my own wuz long ago?
Is it the bleat o' the whistle and beat
O' the little toy drum and blare
O' the horn? No, no! It is jest the sweet—
The sad-sweet feel in the air.

CHARGE LET-UP IN PROSECUTIONS OF "SLAVE" CASES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 12.—Direct denial from the department of justice that there has been any relaxation in the prosecution of white slave cases, was laid before the Senate today by Senator Kern.

"No order to stop white slave prosecutions in cases not involving commercialism, has been issued and no new regulations as to the enforcement of the act have been made since the incumbency of the new attorney general," said the department of justice memorandum.

"On the contrary, the department of justice has adhered to the practice adopted immediately after the passage of the law and followed during the previous administration."

Senator Jones insisted, however, that reputable attorneys in the state of Washington had received information of an apparently authentic character, that only cases of an international character were being prosecuted.

Admiral Fletcher Reports Hot Fight Now On at Tampico

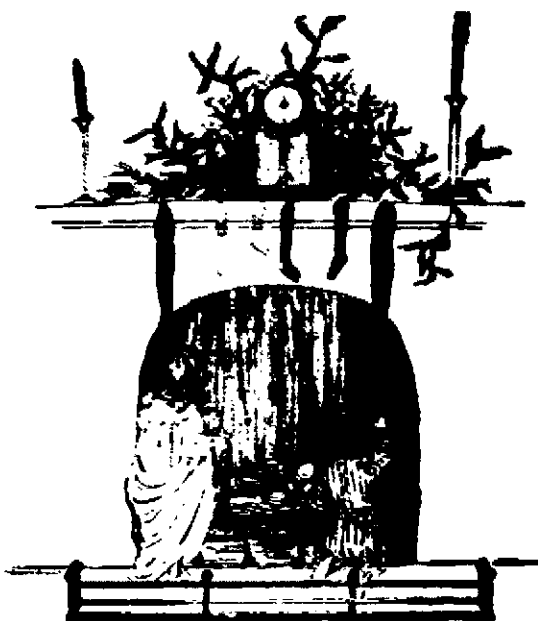

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Dec. 12.—Wireless dispatches from Rear Admiral Fletcher at Tampico, on board the United States battleship Tacoma, sent at four p. m. yesterday say the Federal gunboat Bravo was then shelling the Constitutional position, that there was no change in the relative position of the combatants and that the United States ship Wheeling was in the river close to the fighting. The Federal garrison was estimated at 2000 while the Constitutionalists claimed about 6000. Rear Admiral Fletcher also reported that the refugees were on the American gunboats, 150 on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, a German vessel, and 100 in the buildings ashore in the neutral zone. The cruiser Raleigh has been ordered from San Francisco to Mazatlan on the Pacific side.

It is reported that during the last fishing season 1000 Japanese were employed in the fishing industry in the waters of the Russian Far East, and that the total value of their catch amounted to $4,000,000.
